Nature Symbols

Wood anemone. It blooms as a sea in the broad-leaved forest floors in South Finland in May-June.

Blackbird. Its first sounds of the year are heard in spring, and you can recognise it by its orange-yellow beak.

Pikeperch. It is a common species in all of Europe. In Finland it can be found along the seashore all the way up to the Northern Quark.

Hedgehog. It is one of our most known wild animals. It is a night animal in deciduous and mixed forests, but also a common sight in parks and gardens.

Lake Tuusula. It is almost 8 km long and narrow, its area is about 6 km².

Amphibole. It is a flaky and sparkling mineral in black, dark green or dark brown.
